6 WHEREAS, there has existed in the City of Fort Wayne administrations

9 by requiring employees' of the City administration of the City of Fort Wayne to con-

11 in the City of Fort Wayne; and 12

13 WHEREAS, said coercive method of raising funds deprives the City of

December 29, 1975

Common Council of the
City of Fort Wayne

Gentlemen and Mrs. Schmidt:

I am in receipt of Bill No. G-75-12-29 and Bill No. G-75-12-10.

I have signed Bill No. G-75-12-29. If you will examine the contract with the Machinists very carefully, you will find contract language to the effect that it is a violation of the Collective Bargaining Agreement for any administration to impose upon any employee coercive two per cent fundraising techniques.

It is gratifying to know that Council has in effect ratified this action on the Administration's part. However, I would like to advise Council that perhaps your bill has not gone far enough. At some later date the bill should be amended so that no political subdivision can impose two per cent contributions upon their employees if those subdivisions are located within the confines of the City of Fort Wayne or if they employ people who live within the City of Fort Wayne. By such an amendment, Council would thus be in a position to protect those residents of the City of Fort Wayne who work for the County and the State and are presently paying two per cent against their will.

I now wish to address myself to Bill No. G-75-12-10. This bill passed with nine yes votes. I am sure that all those voting aye did not vote thus with the purest of motives. It had been my intention to veto this legislation and to force Council to reconsider it. It had been my feeling that if there was any faith involved in the Women's Bureau, then Council had to become the defender of that faith. However, after the recent Christmas eve massacre, it appears that we will soon have an administrative environment which is contraindicative to the free and uninhibited spirit. I now agree with Council for the removal of the Women's Bureau from City Government before another important entity becomes a political casualty.

Very truly yours,
